

David Spiecker is a Rochester-area native. His parents, younger sister and brother are also deaf. He studies Professional and Technical Communications at RIT, and is the NTID Student Congress vice president for the FY 2007-2008. He likes to play soccer and go snowboarding.