

Elena Iskandarova was born and raised in Uzbekistan. She attended a school for hard-of-hearing there. Then, her family and she moved to NYC in 2001 and she attended a school for deaf. Her parents and older sister are deaf. She is currently a fourth-year accounting student at Rochester Institute of Technology. Other than being studying, she is involved in Deaf International Student Association as a Director of Program at RIT, and she really enjoys it.