

LEONIDES D. SULSE is currently the Coordinator for Student Academic Services of the DLS-CSB School of Deaf Education and Applied Studies (SDEAS). He has been with SDEAS as a member of its faculty since 2001 and served as Head of the Office for Partnership and Development during the SY 2005-2006. As a graduate himself of the Bachelor in Applied Deaf Studies Program of SDEAS, Leo finished with an honorable mention and delivered the thanksgiving message on behalf of his graduating class, the first and only Deaf person to do so. Currently, Leo is completing his Masters in Educational Technology at the Philippine Normal University.