

Cassie Franklin works as a Student Advisor for the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee's (UWM) Deaf and Hard of Hearing Program, working with students with hearing loss and assessing their accommodation needs.

In addition to her duties at UWM, she also works as an Outreach Specialist for the Postsecondary Education Programs Network - Midwest Region, providing information, resources and technical assistance, along with trainings to high school, colleges and university programs serving Deaf and Hard of Hearing students. Cassie graduated from UWM with her Social Work degree in 1997, and is currently studying for her Master's degree in the same area. Prior to working at UWM, Cassie advocated for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing as a Specialist with the Wisconsin Department of Human and Family Services and worked as a Child Care Counselor with the Wisconsin School for the Deaf. In her spare time, she continues to volunteer for the Wisconsin Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf and the Wisconsin Association for the Deaf.
